ADMINISTRATION

Today with the radical social changes and controversial decisions of our courts, we face the greatest problems that Alabama has faced since the War Between the States.

To solve these problems wisely, we must have men and women who are mentally alert, emotionally stable, physically fit, morally strong, and intellectually trained.

As a working creed basic to such people I give you the statement of Henry Van Dyke, "Be glad of life because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to play and to look up at the stars; to be satisfied with your possessions but not content with yourself until you have made the best of them; to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice; to be governed by your admirations rather than disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners; to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can with body and spirit in God's out-of-doors."

MR. PAUL WEEKS
Superintendent

WARNINGS:

The mid point of the 20th Century has carried its share of warnings by and from every media concerning the changing times in which we live. This space would not be sufficient to even list the major changes that is taking place in our society primarily as a result of man's ingenuity. These changes are and can be horizons that leads man to a happier and more abundant life. However, perplexing problems are evolving from these changes that will require each of us to accept our share of responsibility in finding the proper solutions by which these problems can be solved.

CHALLENGE:

The only obstacle you have is the one you have accepted for yourself. Therefore, accept the challenges and opportunities of the changing world and always use as your guide line the sensitivity to values. May you remember and cherish the challenges, successes, good times, and friends at Winfield High School.

Class History

Although Mrs. Lucy and Miss Louise had taught school for years, and were well adjusted adults, this graduating class of 1963 is responsible for much of the liberal education the two of them acquired during our first year of formal schooling. Unlike most other first graders, our group was neither timid nor subdued. It is rather ironic that ours is the group that began school in the churches. But thanks to Miss Louise and Mrs. Lucy's gigantic efforts we did not lose any of the precious moments of the first grade.

Being in the new building our second year with so much playground space was like turning a herd of cattle from the stable into the green pastures. We ranged far and wide and grazed greedily. During this year we added the personages of Tommy Stiles and also Linda Langley who later served us well as Homecoming maid.

In the third grade, Friday highlighted the week for the girls; for the boys it was pure torture to drag us through rhythms and folk dances.

We were an exceptionally healthy group which was born out by the fact that Mrs. Moss's fourth grade section had perfect attendance for a solid month. We were rewarded with a half holiday and the treat of treats - a popcorn apiece.

Fifth grade moved rather uneventfully under the guiding hands of Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. West, and Mrs. Bowling.

The sixth grade we really blossomed forth. Our own Dennis Greene was selected to be Captain John Smith for the annual P.T.A. program under the direction of Mrs. Ina Murl Moore. Our boys were handsome and debonaire as sailors and the girls never looked more haggard than they did as grease-painted Indians.

After a wonderful year we bade good-bye to our beloved principal and counselor, Mr. Gordon Crawford, in as dignified graduation as our group was capable of.

By this time we had learned that each year we loose a few and gain a few. However, in the seventh grade we got a real pupil transfusion when Liberty, Concord, and several other surrounding schools were merged with Winfield. We were glad to have our forces marshalled as we encountered High School and Mrs. Deaton. Never had we looked forward to vacation with such anticipation as we did that year. Only in later years did we value the training we received at her hand.

Our eighth and ninth years involved a succession of exciting events including: football games, cheerleader tryouts, basketball tournaments, and various other school activities.

In the tenth grade our group was again strengthened by influx of students from Wayside who have figured greatly in our last school years - among them our pretty Homecoming Queen - Freda Langston.

Eleventh grade, and we frantically began selling magazines - those Seniors had to be fed. This year too, Football Banquet became extremely important in our lives. Those who were asked were regarded with awed admiration by the group of us old maids who enjoyed the picture show that night.

Gratifyingly we finally became Seniors. Rings on our right hands were never heavier. We regarded with disdain the lower classmen who had the audacity to accept a 1963 Senior's class ring.

There are only 36 of the original first graders in the class now. However, our group has been enhanced as a result of the many additions.

Through the muddle of Pirate Chest preparations, invitations, superlative selections, and cap and gown rentals we have emerged tonight a group of dignified Seniors. We have come thus far by the grace of long-suffering teachers, undaunted parents, persevering church groups, and despite of some of our own antics. Our destiny from this point forward will lie more wholly upon our own shoulders and depend upon the degree of perseverance we have developed through the years. Let us go forward with the determination to justify the faith shown in us by those persons who have shaped and molded our lives thus far - remembering that - "What you are tomorrow, depends upon what you do today."

Class Poem

Once a famous poet took up his pen and wrote
The following, and I quote:

"One ship drives east, and another west
By the self same winds that blow;
It's the set of the sails, and not the gales
That shows them the way to go."

This applies to mankind, as to the ships at sea
The acts and deeds of each of us will decide our destiny.
If we see our goal as fair
And aim our life course there,
Then keep our course and keep our faith,
Our lives will be first rate.

Parents, faculty, and friends have helped us
Set our sails.
Now we will hold our ships on course and
Conquer in spite of gales.

CLASS POET
Jerry Russell

Class Prophecy

Now using all the mystic power at my command, which is none, I shall tell of the exploits of the members of the senior class ten years from now.

Milton Rhudy is in the Far East trying to locate a 15 dollar car body.

Alyce Porter and Connie Tillery have become business managers for the widely known Mary Jane.

Since abandoning his car above Carbon Hill, Dennis Green has only been seen passing through the woods at a high rate of speed.

Bill Roberts has become Spike Jones's predecessor in the entertainment field and is accompanied by his wife Linda Langley on the Jew's Harpe.

Arnold Norris and Tommy Harbin have taken over the Pure Oil Station and have the highest prices in town, selling by the pint.

James Holliman has taken over Dave Minor's place as Winfield's most popular barber and philosopher.

Billy Joe Weeks and Buddy Moore have become famous writers for "Believe it or Not."

Diane Franks and Anne Fowler have finally settled down to living a normal life after raising so much Cain in their youth.

Freda Langston is currently running for president of the United States on the Independent ticket.

Jerry Russell and Wayne Smith are busy with odd jobs such as carrying ten pound sacks of sugar through the woods.

Robert Campbell, David Snow, and Buddy Langley are famous generals in the U.S. Army after holding the Russians off for three days just this side of Pearidge in World War III.

Dennis Burks is a Plymouth salesman for Winfield Motors.

Gloria Stovall, Betty Sizemore, and Kathaleen Kevette have settled down to being "Just a Housewife."

Billy Hodgson has become a famous artist, mainly by helping J. N. Dickson.

Robert McMillan is now living with his well known uncle in Glen Allen.

Jane Vickery plays the organ for the T. V. soap opera, "The Edge of Night."

Using his ability to converse on any subject, Bobby Dozier has become a famous news commentator.

Margaret Johnson, Margaret Smith and Emma Jean Mayfield disappeared a few days after graduation and haven't been heard from since.

Linda Tucker was married directly after graduation and now has nine children.

Henry Erwin and Brady Mann form the pit crew for the world's fastest race driver, Joyce Perry.

Vicky Bartholomew and Sue Perry are running a beauty parlor in Hollywood, California for a famous television star, Mr. Ed.

Gary Beaty is a millionaire, after obtaining the controlling shares in General Motors.

Using past experience, Walter Lowery has become field instructor for the U.S. Army on the techniques of crawling.

Gary Dodd has taken over Wilt Chamberlain's place as center for the Boston Celtics.

Johnny Marshall has been under the observation of medical authorities for the past five years. They're trying to find out what makes him tick.

Fred Baccus and J. D. Foster are famous for that "Bleached out look" after 10 years at the City Laundry.

Barbara Couch and Martha Corbett have opened a gambling casino and nightclub in Las Vegas known as "Crooked Couch and Corbett, Casino and Club."

After receiving their PhD's in the Wayside Institute of higher learning, Betty Tidwell and Barbara McKay have gained high standings as teachers there.

Charles Collier is working in a mirror factory.

Roger Bowling and his wife the former Brenda Hallmark are running a sheep ranch in lower Fayette County.

Tommy Stiles is a hair model for "Does He or Doesn't He" ads.

Virginia Henderson, Noami Mills and Margaret Shirey have formed a famous trio and are currently touring the Soviet Union. The American Embassy has been rocked as a result.

Larry Raburn and Lavell Pennington are the president and Vice-President of the largest "Lonely Hearts" club in America.

Ted Smith and Arnold Trimm are out of touch behind the moon in a rocket sent up two years ago. Their last word upon entering the rocket was, "Help!"

Barbara Hendrix and James Dodd have opened a drag strip on the east side of town with each fixing all possible races.

Faye Taylor and Terry Atkinson are rivals in the frantic business world of Wayside.

Douglas Walker is one of the nation's leading marriage counselors for people who are late marrying.

Harold White and Judy Watkins are co-originators of the newest dance craze the "Black Bottom."

Billy Ray Nichols has given up his medical career in order to go on a round the world tour with his wife the former Doris Spann.

Larry Tucker has taken over Lundy's upholstery shop.

Johnny Earnest and David Sanders are running a car parts place and ice house. They use the ice to cool the parts off.

And Yours Truly is still trying to pass freshman English at the University of Alabama.

These predictions come with a blank mind and cramped hand, if all or any come true, may we all be blessed.

have later more. Stay as you are and you will be far in life. Love Carol M.
